

Lunch Meeting

Wednesday, 10 May 2017

Presentation and Two Course Lunch: 12:00-14:00

Aperitif at 12:00; presentation and lunch from 12:30

Swissôtel Metropole, Geneva

Speaker: Malika Aït Mohamed-Parent, Independent International Anti-Corruption Expert

Subject: Anti-Corruption in Non-for Profit

“About $1 trillion is paid each year in bribes around the world, and the total economic loss from corruption is estimated to be many times that number.” (World Bank Nov 2016). Unfortunately, the humanitarian sector is not immune from corruption.

The conference will be the opportunity :

- to get an update on Corruption and Anti-Corruption trends;
- to explore the specific corruption risks in the humanitarian sector; and
- to get some insights on some investigation techniques such as Synergologie© (method of specialised interpretation, analysing body language).

Independent International Anti-Corruption Expert specialised in Non-for Profit, Visiting Lecturer at the International Anti-Corruption Academy (Vienna), Member of the Humanitarian Affairs Think Tank at IRIS (Paris), Member of the International Scientific Committee at the FRC Foundation (Paris), former Under Secretary General at the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies.

With 30 years' experience in the Humanitarian sector, Malika has actively contributed - at senior management level - to strategic development, policy creation and implementation, network empowerment and compliance enforcement requiring travel to more than 90 countries on all continents.

From anti-corruption preaching to corruption fighting, she is committed in developing institutional accountability framework embracing Fraud and Corruption prevention and control.
